

DAN DAIGLE, LEED AP
64 North Street, Three Rivers, MA 01080

TITLE: Architectural Designer / CAD Manager

EDUCATION: M Arch, Masters in Architecture - 2010
Wentworth Institute of Technology
Boston, Massachusetts

B Arch, Bachelors in Architecture - 2008
Wentworth Institute of Technology
Boston, Massachusetts

Study Abroad Program: Berlin, Germany - 2006
Wentworth Institute of Technology

PROFESSIONAL & CIVIC AFFILIATIONS:

LEED Accredated Professional, Building Design + Construction
ID #10099092

National Certification of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB)
Intern Development Program

Firefighter, Three Rivers Fire Department

Son of the Amvets, Post 74, Three Rivers, MA

NCARB – Intern Development Program – Complete: March 212

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE & DEVELOPMENT:

Architectural Designer / CAD Manager
Architectural Insights , Palmer, MA 2008 – present
Intern Architect Eligible for Registration Exam

Intern Draftsperson
Dietz & Company Architects, Springfield, MA 2005 – 2007

Intern Draftsperson
Studio One Architects & Planners, Springfield, MA 2004 – 2005

Healthcare Experience:
Mr. Daigle has been very instrumental in providing miscellaous documentation for the Wing Memorial Hospital campus and remote facilities. He is proficient in utilization for REVIT CAD software and has been directly involved in multiple healthcare build out projects including DPH filings

PUBLICATIONS:

Towards a New Health Care Paradigm: A Reason for Change
December 2010
A thesis regarding personhood in the healt hcare environment

CITYSECTION: A Transect Study of Boston: 2006
www.citysection.org
Conducted research for transect study 17 – student at Wentworth Institute of Technology